
10 REASONS TO ATTEND FORWARD VIRTUAL

1. Forward Summit has a unique global reach and focus. There is no other virtual conference with our global reach and mission to redefine global management and leadership.
2. Forward provides excellent value over 2 half days. With over 23 live and recorded sessions available to all attendees, you can take back all content to the (home) office for further implementation and learning at your own pace.
3. Network with hundreds of senior attendees to make new business connections and clients. Forward Virtual's online event platform enables you to see who else is attending and arrange 1:1 meetings as well as message fellow attendees you wish to get to know.
4. Join the interactive breakout sessions to meet with other attendees and gain deep learning and engagement. Each breakout session has interactivity built into the program, thus ensuring you can ask your burning questions to fellow attendees and speakers.
5. Forward Virtual boasts 2 half days of content and networking, thereby enabling you to meet hundreds of attendees from different time-zones across the globe in less than a week.
6. Our speakers will provide concrete case studies from their own learning experiences in HR transformation and employee engagement. Learn from specific examples of challenges and opportunities which you can implement in your own transformation journey.
7. Hear from two "Best Places to Work" - one from The Netherlands - Viisi And One From Australia - The Physio Co. Forward Virtual provides you with global inspiration which you cannot find anywhere else.
8. Scroll through the hundreds of attendees and message potential clients and contacts who are just as passionate about redefining leadership as you are.
9. Vote with your virtual feet and co-create your own program in our unconference sessions. Forward Virtual is uniquely structured, and is the only leadership conference with inspirational keynotes and interviews AND unconference and group activity breakouts.
10. Forward Virtual is an efficient way of meeting fellow global leaders online over 2 days. You will come away with hundreds of new connections without leaving your (home) office.

Join the only virtual global management and leadership conference dedicated to happiness at work and be inspired to create a new way of working centered on happiness and agility and in turn business success!
