
10 REASONS TO ATTEND FORWARD 2021

1. Forward Summit provides 3 days of unparalleled in-person experiences for senior leaders. It is the only global conference focused on redefining the world of work and promoting innovation in management & leadership approaches
2. There are over 40 sessions to choose from. The program is uniquely structured with morning keynotes and interviews and afternoon track sessions to enable you to meet the keynote speakers in person; join a small group activity and vote with your feet – thereby ensuring optimum networking & learning opportunities
3. Forward Summit is an efficient & valuable way of meeting fellow global leaders over 3 days in Berlin. You will come away with hundreds of new connections and be able to conduct business meetings in-person all in one place
4. Every attendee is able to create their own program experience depending on your learning and networking needs. There are three tracks to choose from to personalize your own learning journey as well as unconference daily breakouts
5. The Forward Pre-conference workshops focus on in-depth learning and connections over one day. You will gain hands-on practices focused on better facilitation or energizing people. You will come away with concrete techniques you can implement straight away as well as get to know a small group of workshop participants and learn together
6. Forward breakout sessions enable group learning on hot topics such as Agile HR and how a transformed HR department can serve your employees better in uncertain times
7. Network with hundreds of agile coaches, scrum masters, HR managers and other functional leaders from around the world to gain latest trends and worldwide insights on leadership and share best practices
8. Experience new practices by taking an in-depth playful approach to understand what might strengthen and hinder intrinsic motivators for yourself and your team
9. Play the Management 3.0 games with fellow attendees and gain practical experience of the tools and methods to share with your team or clients in your everyday interactions
10. Networking is a vital part of your in-person experience. Join in the extended breaks; small group sessions; be part of your learning group and enjoy the “happy hour” networking reception.

Join the only global management & leadership conference dedicated to happiness at work and be inspired in-person to create a new way of working centered on happiness and agility and in turn business success!

Register today at fwd-summit.com/in-person/

FORWARD
By Management 3.0